:laugh: :laugh: :laugh:

TF2 = Manic fun:P

Ive played Team Fortress 2 for about 1 hour, and I really enjoyed it. If enough people have it, it would be good team game to play at the lan.

Does anyone else have reveiws/veiws on TF2?

P.S One more day till HL:E2 + portal;)

We're currently in talks with Valve, there maybe a chance we can get Team Fortress 2 available for all attendees!!!

If your interest please let us know, either pop a post below or vote on our poll.

:woohoo:

Been playing portal aswell, really good game, enjoying it a lot. I think we may even be able to persuade Mark to play that type of game!

Best deal ever.

Portal is just... Wow. Team Fortress 2 is my new facourite multiplayer game, and Half-Life 2: Ep 2 is part of HL - so it's naturally amazing.

Anyway, I'd turn up at a LAN tournament for Team Fortress 2 for definite. Amazing game.

Team Fortress 2 was excellent at the last LAN. However my favourite game from the Orange box has to be Portal. I'm currently going through the time challenges now, which are quite tough!
