

October LAN event

The tournament is being planned for October time, and is starting to come together. At this point in time there the location of the event is still to be confirmed, together with event entry fee, time and location of the tournament.

The highlight of the event will be the a Counter Strike: Source tournament with prizes for the winners(s), prizes have been provided courtesy of our sponsors; AMD, Saitek and Antec. The prizes are... There will be pictures of the event prizes posted shortly.

If you have any questions about this event which aren't covered in the FAQ please leave a message in our forums and we'll get back to you.

In order to help us make this tournament a better experience for all participants, please check out the polls section, this will mean that we can tailor the games to suite our members.

Keep watching the news for more details!